Dedicated to helping our partners succeed and getting our contract holders back on the road faster.

AUL Corp pioneered the used car service contract industry with the introduction of our still-famous Any Year-Any Mileage® vehicle service contract in 1990. Now, over thirty years later, we've grown to offer a full-suite of industry-leading F&I products designed to help our partners and customers enjoy even more peace of mind every day.

Our mission is simple — to be the premier F&I provider in America by every quantifiable measurement of business activity. AUL maintains a longstanding relationship with our underwriters, who hold an A.M. Best rating of "A" Excellent and, according to third-party research, AUL also enjoys the longest-term relationships in the industry with our agents and dealer clients.

Service Contracts. It's what we do.®

With over 30,000 different parts that can break or fail, the only thing sure about owning a car is that at some point you'll need emergency repairs. But you don't have to be caught unprepared. AUL offers a variety of terms and coverage levels to help owners get the peace of mind they need, while offering convenient claims and underwriting to help our agents and dealers enjoy the best Finance Department product offerings to help them continue to work expeditiously.

One team dedicated to going the extra mile.

At AUL, good enough isn't good enough. Our team is always ready to go above and beyond. Like our dedicated Sales Support Team that provides immediate support (800.826.3207 ext. 450). Because we believe our success can only be measured by yours.
